Understanding Frontier Airlines Name Change Policies

Frontier Airlines takes name accuracy seriously. Passenger names must match government-issued identification exactly to pass through TSA and board your flight. Any discrepancies can lead to denied boarding or canceled itineraries. Frontier differentiates between:

1. Minor Name Corrections

- These include typos or small spelling mistakes, like switching "Jonh" to "John" or "Micheal" to "Michael."
- Frontier often allows minor corrections with a minimal fee or sometimes no fee, depending on fare type.
- To correct a typo, call 📞 [+1-877-622-0707] and provide your booking confirmation.

2. Major or Legal Name Changes

- Major name changes occur due to marriage, divorce, or legal name changes.
- These require documentation, such as a marriage certificate or court order.
- Frontier charges a standard fee for major name changes, and it's essential to call 📞 [+1-877-622-0707] to confirm the amount.

3. Non-Transferable Policy

- Frontier tickets are generally non-transferable, meaning you cannot give your ticket to another passenger.
  - If someone else needs to fly, the best approach is often to cancel and rebook. Agents at 📞 [+1-877-622-0707] can guide you on this process.

Why Name Accuracy Matters

Accurate names are crucial for several reasons:

- TSA and security checks: Mismatched IDs and tickets may delay or prevent boarding.
- Avoiding cancellations: Some Frontier fares automatically cancel remaining flights on a multi-city itinerary if a no-show occurs due to name issues.
- Loyalty points and perks: SkyMiles and other benefits are tied to the correct passenger name.

By contacting ☎ [+1-877-622-0707], you ensure that your ticket is fully compliant and you avoid any complications.
